Pursue a life with art

Our primary mission is to facilitate learning, research, experimentation and understanding of art, through Truman's knowledgeable and talented faculty, state-of-the-art facilities, and one-on-one instruction. Art majors are guided, challenged, and encouraged to develop into highly skilled professionals in any of our areas of specialty: Art History, Design and Studio Art.

Programs

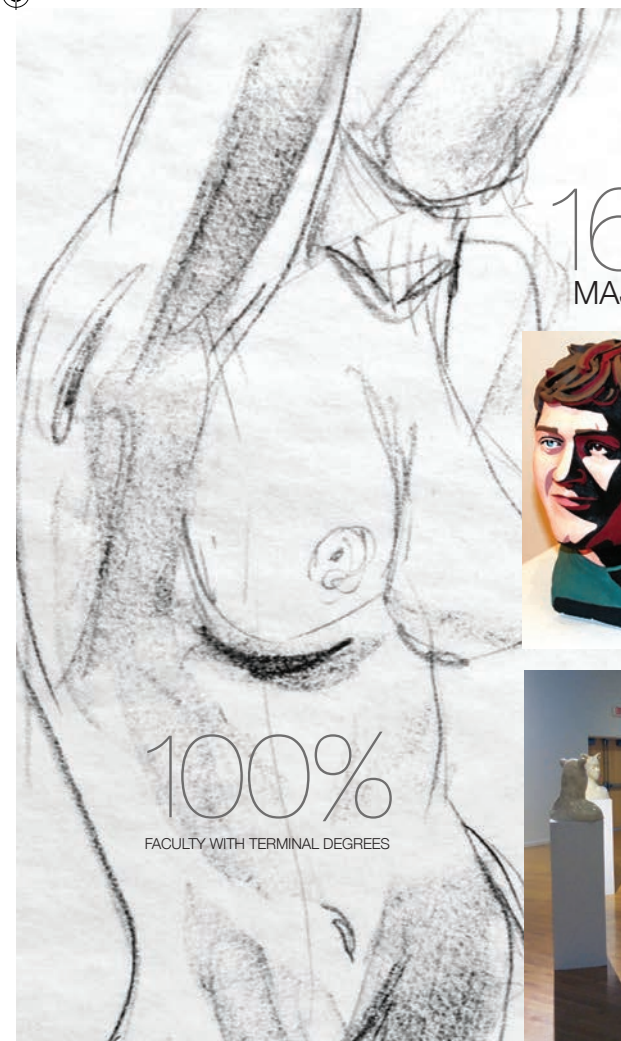

The department has three distinct areas of study: Art History, Design and Studio Art

- The Art Studio program offers the specialties of Ceramics, Fibers, Painting, Printmaking, Sculpture and 3-Dimensional Studio
- The Design program focuses upon Print and New Media design (web, 3D modeling, motion and animation)

The Art Department offers three degrees

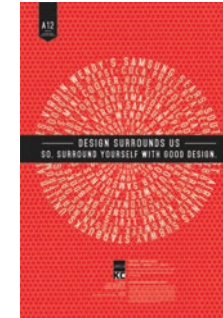

- Bachelor of Fine Arts: Design OR Studio Art
- Bachelor of Arts: Art History
- Bachelor of Arts: Art

and offers four minors, Art History, Design, Photography and Studio Art
